VI. Immunity. No volunteer director or volunteer officer of the Organization shall be personally liable to the Organization or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer, provided that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director or officer for any of the following:

- a) breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the Organization or its members;
- b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law;
- c) a violation of Section 551(1) of the Michigan Non-Profit Corporation Act;
- d) an act or omissions that is grossly negligent; or
- e) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit.

If the Michigan Non-Profit Corporation Act hereafter is amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors and officers, the liability of a director or officer of the Organization, in addition to the limitation on personal liability contained herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Michigan Non-Profit Corporation Act as so amended.

No amendment or repeal of this Article shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director or officer of the Organization for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. This provision regarding amendment and repeal is hereby made a contractual right of directors and officers.

VII. Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section for any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

VIII. First Directors. The members of the first board of directors will be: Erich Wangeman, Jane Lucas, and Bob Heisler.

IX. Election of Directors. New directors shall be elected by majority vote of the existing board members at the annual meeting of the board of directors.
